PRIVACY POLICY

1. INTRODUCTION

Welcome to Cybereason Inc. (together with its majority-owned subsidiaries, “Cybereason”, “we”, “us” or “our”). Cybereason is a provider of endpoint detection and response software (“Services”) that is used to detect anomalous activity on our customers’ networks and systems.

As you gather information about Cybereason by visiting or engaging with our Platforms (defined below), or applying for a job, we will collect some personal data from you.

This Privacy Policy (the “Privacy Policy”) explains our data practices regarding personal data and other information that we collect in connection with: (i) your use of the Cybereason website <https://www.cybereason.com>, and any other website that Cybereason operates (each, together with its sub-domains, content and services, the “Site”) and Cybereason’s customer and partner portals (the “Portals”, together with the Site, the “Platforms”), (ii) job applications submitted to us through the Platforms, (iii) events you may attend to (for example, trade shows).

This Privacy Policy forms part of our Terms of Use, which is available at: <https://www.cybereason.com/terms-of-use>. Any capitalized but undefined term in this Privacy Policy shall have the meaning given to it in the Terms.

This Privacy Policy does not apply to personal data that our customers upload or otherwise submit to the Services, that we process on our customers’ behalf. Our practices concerning this data are addressed in our License and Services Agreement (Available at: <https://www.cybereason.com/license-agreement>).

By using the Platforms, and providing us with your personal data through your use of the Platforms, you consent to the processing of your personal data in the manner set out in this Privacy Policy. If you do not agree to this Privacy Policy, please do not access or otherwise use the Platforms.

2. INFORMATION WE COLLECT

When you interact with the Platforms, we will collect information that, alone or in combination with other information, could be used to identify you (“Personal Data”), as described below:

Personal Data That You Provide Through the Platforms: When you request information, including a demo, ask to download content (such as white papers), register for a webcast or other event, apply to become a partner through the Platforms, or subscribe to emailing lists, we will collect the following Personal Data from you:

- First and last name
- Job title
- Company name
- Email address
- Mailing address
- Phone number
- Country location
- Your subscription preferences, if you choose to opt-in to receive promotional emails from us.

When you sign up for our blog, we collect your email address. If you choose to opt-in to receive promotional emails from us, we will also collect your email subscription preferences.

When you apply for employment through the Platforms, our provider of recruiting services will collect your resume and any additional information that you elect to provide to us, including but not limited to employment history and education.

Events. When you attend one of our live events (for example, trade shows), and visit our booth or otherwise interact with us, we will collect the Personal Data that you elect to provide.

Automatically Collected Data: When you visit the Site, we will automatically collect information about you through cookies and similar technologies. Please see the "Use of cookies" section below to learn more about how we use cookies and similar technologies. We also collect information on the country you are connecting from based on your IP address at the time you visit the Platforms.

3. HOW WE USE PERSONAL DATA AND OTHER INFORMATION

To provide the Services to you and respond to your requests. When you ask for information about the Services (for example, when you request a demo), ask to download content through the Platforms or apply to become a partner, we will use your contact information, including your phone number, to respond to your request by email, mail, phone, text message or other means directed to the contact information you have provided. For EU data subjects, such use is necessary to respond to or implement your request.

For marketing purposes. We will use your email or mail address to send you information (as applicable) by email and post about our new products and services, upcoming events or other promotions. You may opt-out of receiving such emails by following the instructions contained in each promotional email we send you. If you request a demo or download content from the Platforms, we may also use your phone number to contact you directly by phone, in connection with such new products and services, upcoming events or other promotions.

Where required by law (for example, if you are an EU data subject), we will only send you marketing information by email or mail, or contact you by phone, if you consent to us doing so at the time you provide us with your Personal Data. When you provide us with your consent to be contacted for marketing purposes, you have the right to withdraw your consent at any time by following the instructions to "opt-out" of receiving marketing communication in each marketing email we send you. In addition, if at any time you do not wish to receive future marketing communications or wish to have your name deleted from our mailing or calling lists, please contact us at privacy@cybereason.com. We will continue to contact you via email regarding the provision of our Services and to respond to your requests.

Unless you are excepted by Section 8 of this Privacy Policy, by providing your contact information, you consent to receive communications, including, for example, telephone calls, text messages (including SMS and MMS messages), and other electronic communications (such as communications containing an artificial voice or prerecorded message or made using an automatic telephone dialing system) from us and our affiliates and partners at any of the contact information you provided, including your wireless number, even if that number is registered on a corporate, state, or national do not call registry. You also represent that you understand that your consent to such communications is not required to use or purchase the Services.

To analyze, administer, support, improve use of the Platforms. We use data relating to your use of the Platforms to analyze, administer, support and improve your access to and use of the Platforms. We may also compile, anonymize and/or aggregate your Personal Data and other data and use such anonymized and/or aggregated data for our business purposes, including sharing it with affiliates and business partners. This aggregate information does not identify you. For EU data subjects, this use of your Personal Data is necessary for our legitimate interests in understanding how the Platforms are being used by you and to improve your experience on it.

To process applications for a job. When you apply for employment through our Platforms we will use your contact details and data about your employment history and education to conduct job interviews, evaluate your application, and as is otherwise needed for recruitment. For EU data subjects, this use is necessary to respond to your request to process your application for employment.

If you are an EU data subject, please see the “EU Data Subject” section below for information on your rights in relation to the Personal Data we hold about you.

4. SHARING AND DISCLOSURE

We may share your Personal Data and other information with certain third parties without further notice to you, as set forth below:

- Vendors and Service Providers: To assist us in meeting business operations needs and to perform certain services and functions: providers of hosting, email communication and customer support services, analytics, marketing, advertising and retargeting (for more details on our third party suppliers of advertising technologies, please see the “Use of cookies” section below). Pursuant to our instructions, these parties may access, process or store Personal Data in the course of performing their duties to us.
- Business Transfers: If we are involved in a merger, acquisition, financing due diligence, reorganization, bankruptcy, receivership, sale of company assets, or transition of service to another provider, your Personal Data and other information may be transferred to a successor or affiliate as part of that transaction along with other assets.
- Legal Requirements: If required to do so by law or in the good faith belief that such action is necessary to: (i) comply with a legal obligation, (ii) protect and defend the rights or property of Cybereason, (iii) act in urgent circumstances to protect the personal safety of users of the Platforms or the public, or (iv) protect against legal liability.

5. DATA RETENTION

We will keep your Personal Data for as long as is reasonably necessary for the purposes described in this Privacy Policy, or as required by law, whichever is the longer.

6. UPDATE YOUR INFORMATION

If you need to change or correct your Personal Data, or wish to have your Personal Data removed from our systems, please contact us as described in the “Contact Us” section below and we will address your requests as required by applicable law.

7. CALIFORNIA DO NOT TRACK DISCLOSURES

We may, and we may allow third party service providers and other third parties to use cookies or other technologies on our Site or Platforms that collect information about your browsing activities over time and across different websites following your use of the Site or Platforms. We currently do not respond to “Do Not Track” (DNT) signals and operate as described in this Privacy Policy whether or not a DNT signal is received.

8. EU DATA SUBJECTS

This section applies if you are an EU data subject (for these purposes, reference to the EU also includes the European Economic Area countries of Iceland, Liechtenstein and Norway).

Cybereason Inc. is the data controller for processing personal data provided to us through the Platforms. Our registered office is in 200 Clarendon St., Fl. 18, Boston, MA, 02116, USA.

Subject to applicable law, you have the following rights in relation to your Personal Data:

- Right of access: If you ask us, we will confirm whether we are processing your Personal Data and, if so, provide you with a copy of that Personal Data along with certain other details. If you require additional copies, we may need to charge a reasonable fee.
- Right to rectification: If your Personal Data is inaccurate or incomplete, you are entitled to ask that we correct or complete it. If we shared your Personal Data with others, we will tell them about the correction where possible. If you ask us, and where possible and lawful to do so, we will also tell you with whom we shared your Personal Data so you can contact them directly.
- Right to erasure: You may ask us to delete or remove your Personal Data, such as where you withdraw your consent. If we shared your data with others, we will tell them about the erasure where possible. If you ask us, and where possible and lawful to do so, we will also tell you with whom we shared your Personal Data with so you can contact them directly.
- Right to restrict processing: You may ask us to restrict or 'block' the processing of your Personal Data in certain circumstances, such as where you contest the accuracy of the data or object to us processing it. We will tell you before we lift any restriction on processing. If we shared your Personal Data with others, we will tell them about the restriction where possible. If you ask us, and where possible and lawful to do so, we will also tell you with whom we shared your Personal Data so you can contact them directly.
- Right to data portability: Effective May 25, 2018, you have the right to obtain your Personal Data from us that you consented to give us or that is necessary to perform a contract with you. We will give you your Personal Data in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format. You may reuse it elsewhere.
- Right to object: You may ask us at any time to stop processing your Personal Data, and we will do so:
  - If we are relying on a legitimate interest to process your Personal Data – unless we demonstrate compelling legitimate grounds for the processing or
  - If we are processing your Personal Data for direct marketing.
- Rights in relation to automated decision-making and profiling: You have the right to be free from decisions based solely on automated processing of your Personal Data, including profiling, that affect you, unless such profiling is necessary for entering into, or the performance of, a contract between you and us or you provide your explicit consent.
- Right to withdraw consent: If we rely on your consent to process your Personal Data, you have the right to withdraw that consent at any time. This will not affect the lawfulness of processing based on your prior consent.
- Right to lodge a complaint with the data protection authority: If you have a concern about our privacy practices, including the way we handled your Personal Data, you can report it to the data protection authority that is authorized to hear those concerns.

You may exercise your rights by contacting us as indicated under "Contact Us" section below.

We will notify you of changes to the data processing activities described in this Privacy Policy by email or by posting a prominent notice on the Site and Platforms.

9. PUBLICLY POSTED INFORMATION

This Privacy Policy shall not apply to any information you post to the public areas of the Platforms. This includes, but is not limited to comments to the Cybereason blog or public forums. Comments posted to public areas may be viewed, accessed, and used by third parties subject to those parties' privacy practices and policies.

10. CHILDREN

Cybereason does not knowingly collect Personal Data from children under the age of 13. If you have reason to believe that a child under the age of 13 has provided Personal Data to Cybereason through the Platforms, please contact us at privacy@cybereason.com and we will endeavor to delete that information from our databases.

11. LINKS TO OTHER WEBSITES

The Platforms may contain links to other websites not operated or controlled by us (“Third Party Sites”), including social media websites and services. The information that you share with Third Party Sites will be governed by the specific privacy policies and terms of service of the Third Party Sites and not by this Privacy Policy. By providing these links we do not imply that we endorse or have reviewed these sites. Please contact those sites directly for information on their privacy practices and policies.

12. SECURITY

We take reasonable administrative and technical steps to protect the Personal Data provided via the Platforms from loss, misuse and unauthorized access, disclosure, alteration, or destruction. However, the Internet cannot be guaranteed to be fully secure and we cannot ensure or warrant the security of any information you provide to us. Please keep this in mind when providing us with your Personal Data.

13. COOKIES

We use cookies from third parties to optimize the functionality of the website, help us understand how the Site is used and provide you with interest-based advertising based upon a user’s browsing activities and interests. A cookie is a piece of information sent to your browser from a website and stored on your computer’s hard drive. Cookies can help a website like ours recognize repeat users and allow a website to track web usage behavior. Cookies work by assigning a number to the user that has no meaning outside of the assigning website. We use cookies to collect information about your device, such as IP address, operating system and browser type, in addition to the information described below.

The Site also uses pixel tags, a technology similar to cookies that is placed on a website or within the body of an email for the purpose of tracking activity on websites, or when emails are opened or accessed, and is often used in combination with cookies. The Site uses pixels tags, from the below third parties, to help us improve use of our Site and the services, and know when content has been shown to you.

Technologies Used

The types of technologies that we use are detailed below:

Category/Name	Purpose
Analytics	The Site uses “analytical” cookies that allow us to recognize and count the number of visitors and to see how visitors move around the Site when they are using it. This helps us to improve the way our Site works, for example by making sure visitors are finding what they need easily. The information collected through these cookies include anonymous traffic statistics, like number of page views, number of visitors, and time spent on each page. In particular, the Site uses: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Google Analytics, a web analytics service provided by Google Inc.
